

Class of June 1953

SALUTATORY

We entered school this thought in mind, To study hard and learn. We buckled down right to the grind, Good marks we vowed to earn. We tried so hard that first long term, To learn all that we could: Through every test we'd always squirm, Our grades were more than good!! The next term we returned to school With not so strong a yearning. To study hard became a rule, Ambition was still burning. Term after term we tried so hard To make our class the best. We joined all clubs and earned good grades. Did better than the rest. Sometimes our early hopes grew weak And then our teachers all Reached out their hands to guide us right And save us from our fall, We leave this book for all to see What we had come to do. Read every page and you can judge What we have said to you.

THE

LAMP

WEST SIDE HIGH SCHOOL

Newark, New Jersey

DEDICATION

Joyce Batitto

To Joyce Batitto, who was a member of our class, we, the Class of June 1953, dedicate our yearbook, The Lamp.

There are so many things which cannot be expressed in mere words but we know that Joyce was a true sincere friend for whose friendship we shall always be grateful. We felt a deep sense of sorrow at her passing away. We do, therefore, dedicate our yearbook to the cherished memory of Joyce Batitto, and wish her eternal happiness.

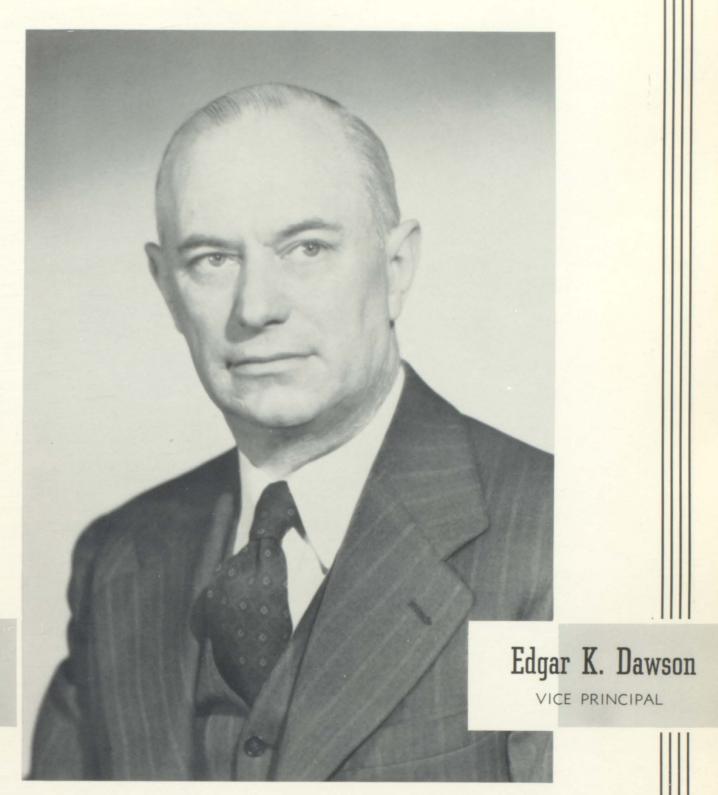

FACULTY

MESSAGE

Congratulations upon attaining your goal. Twelve long years, not counting kindergarten, have passed. Now, you stand on the threshold of a new life. You probably have a feeling of uncertainty now and then. Be not troubled. You should have learned that a firm approach to a problem leads to a satisfactory solution. That is one of the intangibles you should have mastered. You should already have thought of tomorrow and another goal. Plan and work toward it and it can be attained.

TO SENIORS

Perhaps you have nostalgic feelings about leaving West Side. That is natural. But you felt the same way about leaving grammar school. We hope you will feel free to return to us to ask for advice, to seek encouragement, and to share your triumphs. Now, square your shoulders and, with zest in your soul, go forth to newer and greater worlds. Add new achievements to your successes here.

Eleanor R. Fabiano

CLASS ADVISER

To Mrs. Fabiano and Mr. Hill, our senior advisers, we the Class of June 1953, wish to extend our gratitude and appreciation for making our senior activities and graduation a success.

We should also like to thank them for their excellent advice and guidance during our senior year at West Side.

DAY

Our Senior Advisers.

Proud Seniors in their honorary seats.

Welcoming speech by Lora Weinberg.

'Mr. Snavely's congratulations.

We leave as Senior A's.

We, the Graduating Class of June 1953 of West Side High School, in the City of Newark, County of Essex, and the State of New Jersey, being of almost sound but slightly weathered mind, do hereby promulgate the following as our LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT:

To the 4B's, we leave all the honors and dignities of becoming 4A's, such as seats of honor at assembly, evacuating the gum from their mouths and placing it under the seats, uplifted noses, and other benefits to be accrued therefrom.

To the Juniors, we bequeath the Chemistry Lab with all its attendant odors and tear-drawing devices, as an inspiration toward higher honors.

To the Sophomores, we leave erasers, blackboards, text books, scrap baskets, lunchroom food, window poles, and the faculty of inoffensive teachers.

To the Cafeteria we leave a bottle of Chlorophyll Air-Wick (Kills odors), and a French dictionary for the purpose of concealing vegetables, soups, potatoes, and meat with gravy, under fancy names.

To our Janitors, many of whom have become our friends, we leave the institution.

To the Faculty, we bequeath seekers after knowledge, and we fervently hope that very little aspirin will be needed.

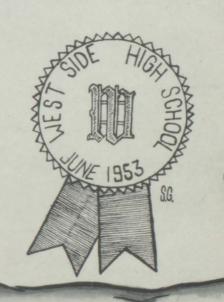

To our Yearbook Adviser, Miss Clarke, we leave one yearbook and all the buffoonery of the meetings to come.

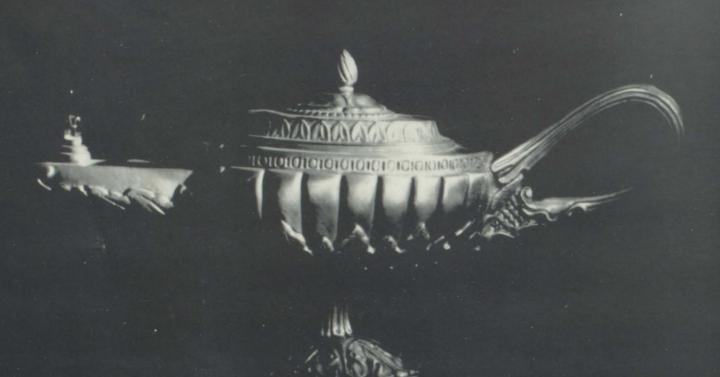

To our Senior Advisers, Mrs. Fabiano and Mr. Hill, their first experience as such, we leave our most sincere thanks and appreciation for their leadership and advice during our senior year.

To the School, we leave . . .

In witness whereof, we have hereunto affixed our mark and signature.

CLASS OF JUNE 1953

VALEDICTORY

We learned a lot in these past years . . . Not all in books we find, A way to choose our new career And how the path will wind. We'd like to thank with all our hearts Teachers who paved our way. We're leaving now, we hate to part, Farewell is ours to say. The time we spent, the work we've done Though labor bent, was all in fun. We thank our counselors one and all Without their help we'd surely fall. We leave the lamp a symbol strong To guide the future class; It's light directs the right from wrong It's memory holds us fast.
